UniSA Acknowledgement of Peoples and Country

We respectfully acknowledge the Kurna, Boandik and Barngarla First Nations Peoples and their Elders past and present, who are the First Nations' Traditional Owners of the lands that are now home to the University of South Australia's campuses in Adelaide, Mount Gambier and Whyalla.

We are honoured to recognise our connection to the Kurna, the Boandik and the Barngarla lands, and their history, culture and spirituality through these locations, and we strive to ensure that we operate in a manner that respects their Elders and ancestors. We also acknowledge the other First Nations lands across Australia with which we conduct business, their Elders, ancestors, cultures and heritage.

Kurna

UniSA tampinhi, UniSA Kurna yartangka yuwanthi.
Kurna miyurna yaitya mathanya Wama Tarntanyaku. Parnaku yailtya, parnaku tapa purruna, parnaku yarta ngadlu tampinhi.

Yalaka Kurna miyurna ithu yailtya, tapa purruna, yarta kuma puru martinhi, puru warriapinhi, puru tangka martulyainthi.

We acknowledge that the University of South Australia is on the traditional Country of the Kurna people of the Adelaide Plains. We recognise and respect their cultural heritage, beliefs and relationship with the land, and we acknowledge that they are of continuing importance to the Kurna people living today.

Boandik

Ngathu putama nhu mraat, mraat Boandik-at wulnuwitjara Berrinat ba mraatat mingro Berrin.

I recognise this country (is) the country of the Boandik, the Custodians of Mount Gambier and the Country around Mount Gambier.

Barngarla

We acknowledge and respect the Barngarla people as the Traditional Custodians of the ancestral lands. We acknowledge the deep feelings of attachment and relationship of Barngarla people to the Country and the sea.

Chancellor's welcome

Today is a time for celebration, as you mark both the end and the beginning of exciting, challenging, and rewarding times. It is also an occasion on which to look forward to the opportunities available to you as a graduate of the University of South Australia.

The University is honoured to be able to share this special event with you, and your family and friends.

During your time with the University of South Australia you have developed a set of distinctive qualities that describe the knowledge, skills and personal abilities you will need as you move into a constantly changing global economy.

You have acquired an international outlook; a capacity for critical thought and lifelong learning; an ability to communicate effectively and work autonomously and cooperatively; and a sense of social responsibility. You are well equipped to succeed, confident in the knowledge and skills you possess.

Congratulations and all the very best as you start the next big adventure in your lives.

Ms Pauline Carr
Chancellor

Ms Pauline Carr

FCG(CS,CGP), FGIA, FAICD, MBA, BEc

Pauline Carr is the Chancellor of the University of South Australia. She has more than 30 years of management and commercial experience in the resources industry with both Australian and international companies. In addition, she has over 20 years of comprehensive compliance and governance experience with listed company boards. Previously, Ms Carr was a senior executive with Normandy Mining Limited, where she was actively involved in the company's growth, its corporate activities and international expansion, and subsequently Newmont Mining Corporation.

Ms Carr is currently Chair of National Pharmacies and the South Australian Government's Minerals and Energy Advisory Council. She is also a nonexecutive director of ASX-listed companies Highfield Resources Limited and Australian Rare Earths Limited. Her areas of expertise include continuous improvement governance, compliance and risk management.

Vice Chancellor's welcome

Graduating with a university degree represents a major milestone in life. This is an occasion when your hard work and resilience are recognised and rewarded.

You will leave us today with a parchment and a career path and we could not be prouder of you.

We are all very pleased to share the excitement of this day with you and with the people who have supported you throughout your studies: your family, your friends and your mentors.

Yours is an important graduation ceremony and we are celebrating your success along with our own. We are considered one of the world's best young universities – Australia's University of Enterprise – putting our best teaching and research into creating bright futures for our students and partnering with industry and the professions to bring the benefits of that teaching and research to our community.

We hope the achievement you celebrate today opens many opportunities for you so you can make your mark as a global citizen – a professional in everything you do.

You, like more than 240,000+ graduates who have preceded you, are very important to us; you are our success stories, the role models for current students and those who might follow in your footsteps. As your career grows and your success is assured, current students look at you and see what is possible in their own lives.

We wish you every success, happiness and prosperity as you take your first steps into your new lives as graduates of the University of South Australia.

Professor David Lloyd

Vice Chancellor and President

Professor David Lloyd

CCHEM, FRSC, FTSE, PhD, MA,
BSc(Hons)

David Lloyd was appointed to the University of South Australia as Vice Chancellor and President in 2012. A Dublin-born and Dublin-educated chemist who specialises in computer-aided drug design, Professor Lloyd has refocused UniSA's institutional culture to create Australia's University of Enterprise and to shape its activities to better meet the challenges of the 21st century.

Professor Lloyd was a member of the South Australia Economic Development Board (EDB) from 2014 to 2018. A past Chair of the Australian Technology Network group of technology-focused universities, he is now Chair of Universities Australia, the peak body representing the university sector, having previously served as UA's lead Vice-Chancellor: Indigenous and lead Vice-Chancellor: Research and Innovation. He was previously appointed to the Australian Research Council's (ARC) Advisory Council to provide advice to the ARC on key research policy issues, and to lend independent strategic guidance and experience that will strengthen the ARC's ability to support research and innovation in Australia.

Before joining the University of South Australia, Professor Lloyd was Vice-President for Research and later Bursar and Director of Strategic Innovation at Trinity College Dublin. Professor Lloyd was Chair of the Irish Research Council and prior to academia, worked in the pharmaceutical industry in the UK. He holds an Honorary Professorship from Tianjin University. He is a Fellow of the Royal Society of Chemistry and a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Technology and Engineering.

About the University of South Australia

The University of South Australia (UniSA) is a globally connected and engaged university, with a core focus on delivering education and research that supports solutions for both industry and the professions.

UniSA is a place for unstoppable people – all in the pursuit of excellence. We're one of the world's top young universities, and in a fast-moving world, UniSA delivers degrees with relevance. We collaborate with more than 2,500 companies worldwide to bring industry insights into our classrooms and to bring students placement, project, research and work opportunities. Practical learning, informed by industry best practice, is central to UniSA's teaching approach. Our graduates are new professionals, global citizens at ease with the world, ready to create and respond to change. In fact, we have been proudly ranked number one in South Australia for graduate careers 16 years running (QILT Graduate Outcomes Survey). And this year, for the first time, we were ranked as Australia's number one university for graduate employability (QILT Employer Satisfaction Survey).

Our research is on the educational and entrepreneurial edge. We operate in a connected culture of innovation, partnering with end-users to help shape the questions we ask. Our research can be put to work and we see real impact across industry and broader community.

Our contribution also goes beyond the University's walls. We act on our social mission to enrich the communities we serve through meaningful connection. UniSA is home to MOD. (Australia's first futuristic museum of discovery), The Samstag Museum of Art, SASA Gallery, Architecture Museum, Community Clinics, and The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre. We celebrate art and science, support the future of healthcare, help to shape business, and take the lead on new thinking and building a more inclusive society.

We are Australia's University of Enterprise.

Our journey so far

The University of South Australia (UniSA) was established in 1991 but our foundations date back to the latter half of the 19th century. The forerunners of today's UniSA were the South Australian School of Art, founded in 1856, the first of several Teacher Training Colleges formed in 1876, and the School of Mines and Industries, which was established in 1889. These schools were renowned for providing quality education and for responding to the needs of the nascent colony of South Australia.

1856

The School of Art was established by Charles Hill just 20 years after the proclamation of the new colony of South Australia.

1876

The Training School, the first South Australian Teachers College, was founded.

1906

Louis Laybourne Smith established the first architectural course at the South Australian School of Mines and Industries.

1889

The South Australian School of Mines and Industries was established.

1907

Adelaide Kindergarten Training College for teachers was established with strong advocacy from Lillian de Lissa.

1918

The Adelaide Technical High School was founded as a preparatory school for the courses offered by the School of Mines and Industries.

1960

The Adelaide Technical High School and the South Australian School of Mines and Industries merged to form the South Australian Institute of Technology (SAIT).

1965

The SAIT opened its Whyalla campus to meet the growing demand for skills in the steel and shipping industries.

1973

The Aboriginal Task Force was established at the South Australian Institute of Technology and provided some of the first education in social work specifically for Aboriginal students in Australia. It was the first tertiary program of its kind in Australia and provided an enclave of support for its students and a path forward that encouraged careers built on education.

1982

The South Australian College of Advanced Education (SACAE) was formed out of the amalgamation of the Adelaide College of the Arts and Education (including the Underdale and City campuses) along with the Hartley (Magill), Salisbury and Sturt Colleges of Advanced Education.

1991

The South Australian College of Advanced Education (SACAE) was designated as one of only eight Distance Education Centres.

The University of South Australia (UniSA) was established upon the merger of SAIT and three SACAE campuses.

John McDonald was appointed first Chancellor; Professor Alan Mead the first Vice Chancellor.

UniSA became a foundation member of the Australian Technology Network (ATN) federation.

UniSA commenced teaching programs offshore, beginning with the International MBA in Singapore.

Professor Eleanor Ramsay, the first-ever Australian Pro Vice Chancellor charged with improving equity and access to education, was appointed.

The Distance Education Centre building at Underdale was opened.

The Unaipon School was opened offering a range of programs in Aboriginal and Australian Studies.

1998

UniSA awarded an honorary doctorate to then President of South Africa, Nelson Mandela.

1999

David Klingberg AO succeeded Dr Basil Hetzel AC as Chancellor.

UniSA won the Business SA Export Award for education for the first time.

1992

Professor David Robinson was appointed Vice Chancellor.

The Hon Dr Basil Hetzel AC was appointed Chancellor of the University of South Australia.

1994

Two of the University's key research institutes, the Ian Wark Research Institute (IWRI) and the Institute for Telecommunications Research (ITR), were officially opened.

1995

Professor Denise Bradley was made Officer of the Order of Australia. In 2008, she would become Companion of the Order of Australia, Australia's highest honour, for service to higher education.

1997

The City West campus was officially opened by Governor General Sir William Dean.

UniSA identified seven unique graduate qualities that described the knowledge, skills and personal abilities required in professional careers.

UniSA became the first Australian university to develop a Statement of Commitment to Australian Reconciliation.

The Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre was established.

Professor Denise Bradley was named the University's Vice Chancellor and President. Extensively involved in national education policy groups for more than two decades, she chaired the Expert Panel in 2008 that undertook the National Review of Higher Education.

2000

Nelson Mandela was announced as the new International Patron of UniSA's Bob Hawke Prime Ministerial Centre.

2002

UniSA was named the leading provider of offshore programs in Australia by IDP.

FedSat. Australia's experimental satellite developed by the CRC for Satellite Systems and including UniSA-designed payloads, was launched.

The UniSA Northern Adelaide Partnerships (UNAP) program was established to underpin economic and social development and improve education participation in severely disadvantaged communities.

2004

The University of South Australia Business School became only the second in Australia to receive European Quality Improvement System (EQUIS) accreditation, one of two major forms of international accreditation for business schools.

The University received an overwhelmingly positive report from the Australian Universities Quality Agency (AUQA) audit, including 16 commendations for good practice.

UniSA received $10 million in funding from the Australian Government to establish a Chair in Child Protection at the University.

UniSA delivered the Australian International Space University intensive professional development program, confirming South Australia's position as a centre for space education and training.

UniSA won the Institutional Award from the Australian Learning and Teaching Council for Provision of Services to the Community.

2001

The University celebrated its 10th anniversary.

2003

UniSA was named an Employer of Choice for Women for the first time.

2005

The first stage of the University's $100 million capital development program, Blueprint 2005, was completed and five new buildings—the Kurna Building, the Dorrit Black Building, the Garth Boomer Building, the Basil Hetzel Building and the Mawson Centre—were opened.

The University launched four new research institutes – the Ehrenberg Bass Institute for Marketing Science, the Sansom Institute for Health Research, the Hawke Research Institute for Sustainable Society, and the Institute for Sustainable Systems and Technologies (since renamed the Barbara Hardy Institute).

The UniSA Mount Gambier Regional Centre was opened and the Centre for Regional Engagement established.

UniSA was ranked in the top 200 universities worldwide by The Times Higher Education Supplement.

Professor John Ralston was named UniSA's first Laureate Professor.

The Australian Minerals Science Research Institute (AMSRI), headquartered at UniSA's Ian Wark Research Institute, was officially opened. It was supported by the largest ARC Linkage Grant ever awarded.

The Royal Australian Institute of Architects awarded the nation's highest accolade for a public building to UniSA's Kairua Building.

UniSA was awarded $40 million through the Federal Government's Education Investment Fund to help build the $73 million building to house the Materials and Minerals Science Learning and Research Hub at Mawson Lakes.

Dr Ian Gould, a resources industry professional, was appointed as the University's new Chancellor following the retirement of David Klingberg AO.

The UniSA College was launched to offer more opportunities for South Australians to gain access to tertiary education.

UniSA joined forces with the International Space University in Strasbourg, France, to bring world-class space education to the southern hemisphere.

UniSA secured $30 million from the Federal Government's Education Investment Fund towards the cost of a $85 million learning centre to be built in Adelaide's West End.

In the 2011 QS World University Rankings, the University of South Australia showed the biggest improvement of any Australian university for the second year running to be ranked 11th in Australia.

The first national Excellence in Research for Australia (ERA) assessment showed that around 70 per cent of UniSA research assessed was world-class standard or above.

Professor Peter Høj joined UniSA as Vice Chancellor and President of the University following Professor Denise Bradley's retirement.

2009

Associate Professor Mahfuz Aziz won the Prime Minister's Award for the Australian Teacher of the Year.

The UniSA-based Centre for Muslim and Non-Muslim Understanding was launched in India by then Minister of Education and future Prime Minister, Julia Gillard.

UniSA graduated its 100,000th student, Charlotte Mukamuberwa, a Rwandan refugee now with a Bachelor of Commerce degree.

The second Excellence in Research Australia (ERA) assessment rated more than 86 per cent of UniSA's research as world-class or better.

Chemist, researcher and Irish university leader, Professor David Lloyd, is appointed as the University of South Australia's new Vice Chancellor and President.

The new China-Australia Centre for Sustainable Urban Design, is founded in partnership with Tianjin University.

UniSA became the first university in the world to host an online brainstorming event and ideas generator – unijam. It hosted 17,000 unique posts and more than 1300 conversation threads from across 56 countries.

Crossing the Horizon was launched – a strategic action plan designed to change the way the University operates and engages with its communities.

UniSA ranked in the world's top 50 under 50 years of age by both the QS and THE world university rankings. The University also ranked in the THE's global Top 100 for engineering and technology.

UniSA's MBA program was one of only three nationally to win a five-star rating for the sixth consecutive year from the Graduate Management Association's Good Universities Guide.

An alliance with SA Pathology is announced that will see UniSA support the growth of one of Australia's top cancer research centres. With a Federal Government investment of $40 million, the Centre for Cancer Biology (CCB) expansion was announced by the then Prime Minister Julia Gillard during a visit to UniSA in June.

The University was appointed lead partner of a new Cooperative Research Centre for Cell Therapy Manufacturing set to underpin significant innovations in the treatment available for diabetes, wound, and transplant patients.

In April the University's $85 million Jeffrey Smart Building was officially opened, featuring eight floors spanning 12,480m² with the latest technologies and cutting edge learning spaces.

To mark the 20-year partnership between UniSA and Hong Kong Baptist University, a new suite of jointly offered full-time degrees is launched.

UniSA partners with the Institute for Choice to bring global experts together in the science of human choice behaviour; and is announced as the national headquarters for an $88 million Data to Decisions CRC.

UniSA was ranked as one of the world's best young universities (THE ranks us #38 on their list of the world's best 50 under 50; Quacarelli Symonds moves us up to #25). We had some stunning research results as well: Excellence in Research Australia rated 97 per cent of our assessed research as world-class or above.

UniSA was also ranked as one of the world's best international universities. We entered into a significant relationship with the University College London to establish our Future Industries Institute (FII) and became the recipient of an incredibly generous contribution from the late, great, Sir Terry Pratchett, a perpetual scholarship fund worth more than $1 million.

UniSA also opened the Innovation Collaboration Centre at City West in partnership with Hewlett Packard Enterprise and forged a partnership with one of China's largest drug manufacturers, Yabao Pharmaceuticals, to develop and bring to market new cancer treatments.

Jim McDowell, former BAE systems Saudi Arabia CEO and a passionate supporter of continuing education, succeeded Dr Ian Gould AM as the University's Chancellor.

Future Industries Institute (FII) was officially launched and received $7.5 million from the South Australian Government.

Professor Irene Watson was appointed as the first Pro Vice Chancellor: Aboriginal Leadership and Strategy, and Unaipon Chair.

Esteemed investment banker, Chairman of the Sydney Swans Board and UniSA alumnus, Andrew Pridham, presented a $5 million philanthropic gift to support construction of the new great hall. Acknowledging this as the largest single private donation in the University's 25 year history, the multipurpose facility was named Pridham Hall.

UniSA's rapid rise up the international rankings continued with Times Higher Education (THE) rating the university as #32 in their list of the world's best young universities. UniSA was the youngest Australian university on the list and ranked by THE as #9 in Australia, of universities of any age. UniSA's Law School, in only its 10th year, was ranked as one of the world's best at #88 and the best in South Australia. Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching (QILT) rated UniSA as #1 in South Australia for graduate careers and for student satisfaction.

In 2017 UniSA developed a new suite of high-quality, 100 per cent online undergraduate courses that can be studied anytime, anywhere.

Major new infrastructure opened when UniSA launched two new buildings. Pridham Hall and the University of South Australia Cancer Research Institute were both opened in May 2018. Pridham Hall is a $50 million cultural and sporting centre of the University.

The $247 million University of South Australia Cancer Research Institute is home to UniSA's research-rich Clinical and Health Sciences unit and the globally recognised Centre for Cancer Biology, which carries out a world-class program of innovative research. The building is also home to MOD., Australia's leading future focused museum.

The new Samsung SMARTSchool, one of the most technologically advanced teacher-training facilities in the country, opened its doors at UniSA's Magill campus.

In September, UniSA appointed a new Chancellor, Ms Pauline Carr. With more than 30 years' management and commercial experience in the resources industry, Ms Carr has been a member of the University's Council since 2010.

UniSA launched its Enterprise25 plan, re-imagining UniSA with a laser-like focus on its programs and an aim to reduce its operational silos. The plan is to re-shape and review programs to ensure they are leading-edge, end-user endorsed and that all are ranked among the best in the world.

UniSA became the lead institution for one of the most significant space industry research concentrations in Australia, heading up a new Cooperative Research Centre for Smart Satellite Technologies and Analytics – The SmartSat CRC.

The CRC is a national research powerhouse involving a $190 million investment in cash and in-kind from 84 research and industry partners.

With $55m funding from the Federal Government through the Department of Industry, Science & Technology's successful CRC program, the SmartSat CRC is the biggest investment in space industry R&D in Australia's history. It is playing a key role in meeting the Australian Space Agency's goal to triple the size of Australia's domestic space industry to $12 billion, generating an extra 20,000 jobs by 2030.

In 2019, UniSA geared up for a future that is being transformed by technology, both in the way industry operates and in the expectations of our students.

As a key commitment in the University's strategic plan, Enterprise25, UniSA introduced a program-focused organisational structure. This will allow us to achieve our ambitions and ensure that we continue to deliver quality teaching, research and student outcomes.

Despite the phenomenal impact of the bushfires, followed closely by the COVID-19 pandemic which closed down much of the nation, UniSA proved unstoppable, swiftly moving our teaching online.

The University continued to feature in the world's top 50 under 50 in both THE (#25) and QS (#29), solidifying our status as one of the best young universities.

UniSA business education and research was awarded another significant international endorsement, earning the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB) international business accreditation. This was coupled with a full five-year reaccreditation from the leading international network for management development (EFMD).

In 2021, UniSA celebrated 30 unstoppable years. Since our creation in 1991, we have been continuously recognised as one of the world's best young universities by both THE and QS, and ranked #1 in South Australia for graduate outcomes, student satisfaction, campus facilities, student services and teaching quality by QILT.

We boast the most diverse student community in the state, and the largest number of students with a non-English speaking background, disability or low socio-economic status. UniSA also has the state's largest cohort of regional and Aboriginal students, along with the most female students completing studies in non-traditional areas.

In 2021, a significant educational figure in the University's history was honoured, when the late Emeritus Professor Denise Bradley AC became the namesake of the Bradley Building. Located on North Terrace, the Bradley Building is home to UniSA's Centre for Cancer Biology and MOD.

Towards the end of our 30th year we honoured leading Kaurna thinker, philosopher and educator Lewis Yarlupurka O'Brien by re-naming our Law Building. Uncle Lewis has worked tirelessly to create opportunity for Aboriginal Peoples over many decades, and the Lewis O'Brien Building will be the future home of UniSA's Aboriginal Knowledges Centre, a community gathering space to foster cultural connections and knowledge sharing.

Early in 2022 we welcomed the return of many of our international students, who once again brought our campuses to life with their vibrant multicultural perspectives.

2022 saw UniSA expand and develop our already strong relationships with industry through two major initiatives.

In partnership with Fortune 500 global professional services company Accenture, we launched the Innovation Academy in Digital Business, transforming business and digital skills education in Australia.

We also unveiled the virtual component of our Enterprise Hub, in a major restructure of UniSA's industry engagement process.

The Enterprise Hub is a new public facing entity aimed at providing businesses, communities, and organisations access to the full range of the Universities services. In September 2022, iconic actor George Takei joined us for the official dedication of the site for the physical Enterprise Hub in Light Square, planting a time capsule with Vice Chancellor Professor David Lloyd.

In 2022, we also saw the first of our new Visiting Research Fellows arrive. Over five years, UniSA will welcome 500 fellows from top-100-ranked institutions from around the world, along with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander researchers and researchers from DFAT-aid assisted countries.

Following the digital launch of our Enterprise Hub in 2022, 2023 saw us open the doors to the physical Enterprise Hub. The Hub building was bestowed the Koorina name Yangadlitya Kumangka, meaning 'for the future, together', and, among other activities, hosted the launch of our Stretch Reconciliation Action Plan 2023–2025, which commits us to the creation of an Aboriginal Knowledges Centre and deeper two-way engagement with Aboriginal communities.

2023 saw UniSA ranked as Australia's number one university for graduate employability and move into the top 100 universities in the world for industry engagement. Highlighting our strength in both these areas, 2023 saw us launch our Global Executive MBA in Defence and Space, which is training leaders from the defence and space sectors in Australia, the US and the UK through a global program to support the AUKUS alliance.

2023 also saw UniSA make bold plans for the future, committing to creating a new university in South Australia in partnership with the University of Adelaide, supported by the State government. Legislation passed through the State parliament in November 2023, and the new institution, which will be known as Adelaide University, will open in January 2026.

Processional Music

Ancient Land Processional

The processional music played at the start of the graduation ceremony has been composed by Deborah Cheetham AO. The work is sung by the Ngarrindjeri Women's Choir and the Marryatville Concert Choir, supported by the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Nicholas Buc.

"From the beginning I wanted this processional to be a powerful reminder that knowledge has been passed for more than 2000 generations on the lands that the University now occupies. For that reason it was essential to include the traditional language groups from each of the campuses of the University of South Australia - Kurna (Adelaide), Boandik (Mt Gambier) and Barrgarla (Whyalla). Ancient Land Processional is music for ceremony and for celebration. I wanted this work to convey the importance and excitement of one of life's great rites of passage – the graduation ceremony".

- Deborah Cheetham AO

Deborah Cheetham AO

Deborah Cheetham, Yorta Yorta woman, soprano, composer and educator has been a leader in the Australian arts landscape for more than 25 years. In the 2014 Queen's Birthday Honours List, Deborah was appointed as an Officer of the Order of Australia (AO), for distinguished service to the performing arts as an opera singer, composer and artistic director, to the development of Indigenous artists, and to innovation in performance.

As a composer Deborah has received numerous commissions since the success of her opera Pecan Summer (2010) and now specialises in working with traditional languages.

The Ngarrindjeri Women's Choir

Singing is an essential part of identity in Aboriginal culture. The women who gather to sing in Murray Bridge do so because it is part of who they are as Aboriginal women. These women have performed for many important events over the past decade but are never happier than when singing in community and passing on culture through song.

Deborah Cheetham AO

The Marryatville Concert Choir
– Aldis Sils Musical Director

The choir is one of the many co-curricular ensembles at Marryatville High School's internationally acclaimed Special Interest Music Centre. The choir is recognised as one of the best school choirs in Adelaide. In the past decade it has won competitions in Adelaide (Adelaide Choral Eisteddfods), Sydney (Sydney Performing Arts Challenge, ABC Classic FM Choir of the Year State Champion 2006), and internationally (Tallinn International Choral Festival 2007). The choir has toured Central Europe including concerts at the Kodaly School in Kecskemet. The choir performs a wide variety of repertoire in a range of styles, and where possible in original languages.

Adelaide Symphony Orchestra

Established in 1936, the internationally acclaimed Adelaide Symphony Orchestra is South Australia's largest performing arts organisation. Today the ASO plays a major role in Adelaide's cultural and economic vibrancy, and enriches the community through a diverse program of world-class performances to more than 90,000 concertgoers each season. The Ancient Land Processional orchestral music was performed by the ASO, conducted by Nicholas Buc and recorded in Adelaide's ABC studios.

History of Academic Dress

Academic dress has a long history, almost as long as that of universities themselves. It began with the foundation of the European universities in the 12th and 13th centuries. Until that time, education was carried out within the monasteries, such as one at Oxford where divinity, philosophy and arts were studied as early as the 8th century.

It was not until the 12th century that groups of teachers and students gathered together for classes outside monastery walls in a move that was recognisable as the beginnings of universities. Two of the outstanding schools at that time were in Bologna and Paris. During the 13th century the Roman legal word universitas became a common name for study groups. The third great university of the Middle Ages, Oxford, emerged at that time. Much of the symbolism of academic dress is bound up with the history of those early universities which have influenced the creation and maintenance of a distinctive form of dress.

In the earliest times, university statutes concerning academic costume were somewhat vague, and it was not until the late 14th and early 15th centuries, as lay fashions began to change, that universities began to adopt the policy of setting down particular requirements for the shape and cut of academic dress.

Over the centuries, gowns have evolved in various forms from the original outer garment or robe commonly worn by the laity and members of the clergy, to the many modern versions for the various levels of academic awards. Hoods have developed from the head coverings worn by students in the early ages. They were especially useful in inclement weather and in the draughty cloisters of monasteries.

At Canterbury, in the 13th century, the monks' hoods were lined with fur because of the cold. Windows in those days were not glazed.

It would seem that no matter how young a university is, one of the first priorities is to adopt a style of academic dress which is distinctive.

The University of South Australia is no exception. In 1991, the University acknowledged the academic dress of its predecessor institutions and then in February 1992, the University's academic dress was determined by the Council and the first graduation ceremonies wearing the new University of South Australia academic dress occurred during April 1992. It is interesting to note that the hood chosen is of Oxford Burgon style while the gown is of the Cambridge style, an interesting link with two of the greatest European universities of the Middle Ages.

Mortarboard tassels for Indigenous Australian graduates

The University of South Australia is proud of its commitment to Australian reconciliation. To enable Indigenous Australians to have their ancestry recognised, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander graduates have the option of wearing a mortarboard with a tassel incorporating the colours of the respective flags (red, black and yellow for Aboriginal graduates and blue, green and white for Torres Strait Islander graduates).

Ceremony Tradition

Academic Procession and stage party

The traditional custom in which dignitaries of the university enter the graduation hall is known as the academic procession. The University of South Australia's academic procession is led by higher degree graduates and members of the University Council, followed by academic staff and senior management of the University, including the Vice Chancellor. The Chancellor is the last to enter.

Academics sit at the rear of the stage and Council members in the second to front row. The front row is reserved for staff reading graduand names, senior managers, the Vice Chancellor, guest speaker, honorary award recipients, special guests, and the Chancellor.

In some circumstances the Chancellor may be represented by the Deputy Chancellor or Pro Chancellor. The Vice Chancellor may be represented by the Provost and Chief Academic Officer.

Academic Dress

Academic dress usually reflects the highest academic qualification of the wearer. Special ceremonial gowns are also worn and these represent the wearer's position and title. The Vice Chancellor can be recognised by the distinctive Fairford Brocade gown adorned with silver oakleaf lace, and black bonnet with blue tassel. The Chancellor's gown is also Fairford Brocade but incorporates gold oakleaf lace and notably this is worn with a black bonnet finished with a gold tassel. If you look carefully you will see that this gown also has a combination of gold stripes on each sleeve instead of the silver stripes located on the Vice Chancellor's gown.

The Provost and Chief Academic Officer and the Deputy Vice Chancellor: Research and Enterprise wear a black Fairford Brocade gown adorned by silver oakleaf lace.

Senior management wear a black gown with blue facing on the front and rear collar, and a black bonnet with silver tassel. Readers wear the gown reflecting their highest award, as do Professors receiving the honorary title of Emeritus Professor, and those being awarded with the honorary title of University Fellow. Recipients of honorary Doctor of the University awards wear the prestigious blue University of South Australia honorary doctorate gown trimmed with yellow and red facing, and a red, yellow, and blue hood. A black bonnet with gold tassel is the accompanying headwear.

Council members are distinguished with black silk-like gowns with red, blue, and yellow facing, and a black bonnet and gold tassel. Candidates graduating with a PhD wear a black Oxford-style gown with red facing, and those receiving professional doctorates wear the same style gown but with coloured facing representing their discipline.

End of Ceremony

The academic recession signals the end of the ceremony and is led by the Chancellor, followed by the stage party in the reverse order to which it entered. Newly conferred graduates join the recession signalling their entry to the academic community.

University of South Australia Awards

Degree types

University of South Australia students have a range of program options when undertaking their study. The following are examples of other degree titles you may hear in addition to Bachelor awards, during the graduation ceremony.

Doctor of Philosophy

Doctor of Philosophy programs provide training and education with the objective of producing graduates with the capacity to conduct research independently at a high level of originality and quality.

Professional Doctorate

A Professional Doctorate is a rigorous program of advanced study and research, designed specifically to meet the needs of industry and professional groups. Professional Doctorates usually consist of a blend of coursework and research.

Degree with Honours

A degree with Honours is a program of four or more years in duration, which includes a minimum of one year of advanced studies, for students who demonstrate a high level of achievement in the initial years of their program.

Double degree

A double degree is a program where two contrasting and complementary programs at the same level have been combined to complement each other, such that the core elements of the two awards are undertaken simultaneously and the requirements of each award are fully met. These graduates receive two parchments.

Bachelor degree

A bachelor degree is an undergraduate award of three or more years of full-time or equivalent part-time study.

Co-badged degrees

A collaborative arrangement between recognised providers, resulting in a single award and may include the co-badging of a single parchment.

Dual degrees

Collaborative partnerships between the University of South Australia and another recognised provider enable students to undertake a degree jointly facilitated by both institutions. Graduates of these programs will be issued with parchments from each institution.

University of South Australia Medal

Pridham Hall / Yangadlitya Wardli

Pridham Hall is named to acknowledge the extraordinary benefaction and leadership of Mr Andrew Pridham AO DUniv. Mr Pridham is a proud alumnus of the UniSA Property Resource Management degree (1988).

His transformative gift to the University acknowledges his gratitude to UniSA for his “outstanding” education as well as reflecting his belief in the positive role education can play in one’s life.

Mr Pridham also believes that those that have the capacity to contribute to the broader community should do so generously and encourage others to do the same.

“The University of South Australia is an important institution very worthy of support. Universities develop minds and foster new thinking. It is a privilege for The Pridham Foundation to support UniSA and contribute to this impressive building and be a part of the process of developing future generations.

“The first Pridhams arrived in South Australia in 1849, just 13 years after the proclamation of Government in SA. This is an investment of 170 years by my family and its preceding generations. South Australia is important to our family and in particular my direct family, being my parents LR (Bob) and Marie Pridham and my siblings Helen, David, Mary and Richard.

“I hope for the great success of all students who pass through the doors of this great hall in the process of their studies at UniSA.” – Andrew Pridham AO DUniv.

Leave a lasting impression

A gift of education

Education provides a pathway to access many benefits and opportunities in life. Yet some of our students face significant barriers to reaching their goal of attaining a university degree.

You can change someone's life by donating to the UniSA Scholarship Fund. It is a wonderful way of giving back and acknowledging what you have accomplished.

UniSA established the Fund to provide vital financial support to students who need it the most.

One in five of our domestic students comes from a financially disadvantaged background. Many are the first in their family to attend university.

The Scholarship Fund also supports Aboriginal students, students from a refugee background, and rural and regional students relocating to Adelaide for their studies.

Scholarship recipients value the incredible support they receive from donors, not only in terms of financial assistance but also knowing that someone believes in their ability to succeed.

Leave a legacy for the future

Making a gift in your Will is a very personal undertaking that encourages you to think about the legacy you leave and how you would like to be remembered.

Including a gift to UniSA is one of the most meaningful ways to support future generations.

It can pave the way for ground-breaking research, provide scholarships to enable disadvantaged students to access the benefits of education or help build world-class facilities.

When you include a gift to UniSA of any size in your Will you can be confident that 100% of your gift will be directed to the cause of your choice.

You can also be assured that the legislation for the creation of the new Adelaide University includes provisions for honouring and transferring bequests made to the antecedent institutions.

Please contact us if you would like to find out more about helping to create a brighter future through a donation to the Scholarship Fund or by including a gift in your Will.

Congratulations!

Welcome to the UniSA alumni community!

The moment you graduate you automatically become UniSA alumni. Being part of the alumni community connects you to more than 240,000 fellow alumni, who reside in 130+ countries. This global network is one you can tap into anytime during your career and life-long journey.

Alumni benefits

As alumni you enjoy continued access to the UniSA libraries, and online journals, as well as maintaining your UniSA email for life. You'll receive exclusive invitations to events and news stories of your fellow alumni.

For the 12 months following the date of your graduation, you have access to support from a career advisor, can attend drop-in sessions, and receive help with your resumé, job applications and interview techniques.

At any time throughout your career, you can access the online UniSA CareerHub and Self-Help Career Resources tools – a range of resources designed to complement different levels and ambitions.

Check out all the alumni resources and benefits here:

It's a big little world.

We have UniSA Chapters and networks based in Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore and the United Kingdom. Every Chapter has a President and Committee Members who volunteer their time and would be delighted to provide professional introductions and let you know of activities happening in the local region.

Aboriginal Graduates are invited to join the Deadly Alumni Network to receive updates including job opportunities, event invites and assistance to help develop a strong and supportive professional network.

UniSA Chapters and the Deadly Alumni Network promote news and activities through their Facebook groups, so be sure to sign up for any of these that interest you. Join our University of South Australia Alumni page on LinkedIn to network with your fellow graduates.

MIDDLEBACK ARTS CENTRE

The Occasional Address

Damien Judd

Damien was born and raised in country South Australia and has spent the past 27 years living and working in Whyalla, where he has married and had three children.

Damien completed his first degree at the former University of South Australia Underdale campus, where he studied a Bachelor of Applied Science in the field of Exercise and Sport Science. He then went on to complete a Bachelor of Education, before beginning his teaching career in Port Lincoln in the mid-1990s.

From Port Lincoln, Damien moved to Whyalla, where he met and married his wife, Lisa, and started his family while teaching at Our Lady Help of Christians School and Saint John's College. Prior to Whyalla's catholic schools amalgamating in 2008 to become Samaritan College, Damien was appointed the Principal and CEO of the Australian Technical College for the Spencer Gulf & Outback – operating three campuses in Whyalla, Port Augusta and Port Pirie and working closely with major industries in the region to secure school-based apprenticeships for the students.

In 2012 he returned to Samaritan College as Deputy Principal before being appointed co-principal in 2013 and then the stand-alone principal several years later – a position he still holds today.

Damien has a Master's in Educational Leadership and has been fortunate to study and learn in various locations around the world over the past 10 years.

He is a passionate supporter of the North Melbourne Football Club and involves himself in local football in a variety of ways, travelling most weekends to watch his children play sport. Damien was also a keen tennis player and cricketer.

Damien is a proud member of the Whyalla community, having served on many boards, committees and advisory groups, and seeks to involve himself in as many ways possible to support the growth and prosperity of Whyalla.
