

Congratulations

Welcome to the University of South Australia

We are delighted to have you join us in the

Your unstoppable career starts now. You will learn from UniSA experts who are leaders in their field, globally connected and engaged to help solve the problems of industry and the professions. Your study will take you far beyond the classroom, ready to create and respond to change and prepare you with the skills needed for tomorrow's professionals.

Follow these steps to enrol:

Create your own password

Keep your personal information secure.

Once you create your password, you can use this with your username () to access UniSA resources, such as myUniSA

Create your password

Enrol in your courses

- Go to myEnrolment
- Refer to your Enrolment Advice to plan your timetable
- Complete your Checklist, then select and add your classes to enrol

Go to myEnrolment

Visit myUniSA to access university resources

Use myUniSA to access your course sites, student services and your student email.

We will connect with you via your myMail account: @mymail.unisa.edu.au so please check it regularly

Visit myUniSA

Your UniSA student details are located at the end of this email. Please take time to review these and keep them as a reference for the future.

For information about fees, see the Commonwealth Supported Students and the Student Services and Amenities Fee \(SSAF\) sections of the fees and finances website.

If you need any assistance, Campus Central are here to support you through your entire student journey, whether it's support with enrolments, student ID cards, applying for credit, Orientation or much more.

Best wishes with your studies

Richard

Richard Irons
Director: Student and Academic Services

Your UniSA student details

Student ID:

Program Code:

Student Email:
@mymail.unisa.edu.au

Program Name:

Username: