

ACT NOW

CENSUS IS APPROACHING

Dear <Students First Name>

Time is running out

Our records show that you haven't logged into your course pages. We are concerned as you have missed four weeks of study and at risk not being able to complete the course successfully. You need to act now.

If you do not intend to study this study period, you should immediately log into myEnrolment and drop your courses. Instructions on how to drop your courses can be found on ask Campus Central.

The <Census date> is the census date which is the final day to make any changes to your enrolments. Enrolments after census will incur a HELP debt and will be recorded on your academic record. All students must manage their own enrolments to avoid incurring academic and financial penalty.
